

Five days (10-14 February, 2025) training on “Advances in Good Management Practices for Emerging Insect Pests and Diseases Suppression in Coconut” inaugurated today at ICAR-NBAIR, Bengaluru by Dr. Hanumanthe Gowda, B, Chief Coconut Development Officer, Coconut Development Board, Kochi. This training organized under Coconut Development Board project on “Generation of toxicological data for registration of Isaria fumosorosea in CIBRC and demonstration of biocontrol agents for management of Invasive Whiteflies in Coconut”. Total about 20 trainees from Andhra Pradesh, Karnataka, Kerala, Tamil Nadu, Assam and Andaman & Nicobar Islands participating in the training. Trainees are Subject Matter Specialist (Plant Protection) of ICAR- Krishi Vigyan Kendra, assistant Plant Protection Officers (Entomology) of Central Integrated Pest Management Centres, Horticultural Extension officials of department of Horticulture, Development Officers of Coconut Development Board.

